WALL STREET ENJOYS A SAGGING MARKET

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
New York, March 12.—The short interest having been reduced on the mid-week, the market sagged to-day. Shaking of prices for steel products depressed sentiment and the list was sensitive to bear-selling. Buils were not aggressive in supporting their favorites.

Renewed foreign selling and further liquidation of low priced rail-road shares operated against the market. Trading was dull through the morning, and only a few stocks were noticeable under pressure, but the market showed no recuperative powers. At noon losses among the prominent shares ranged from small fractions to more than a point. Bonds were heavy.

Moderate amounts of Steel and Union Pacific were sold by foreign representatives. Selling of Pennsylvania helped the downward movement of the general list. Rock Island securities all dropped if the collateral bonds breaking through forty. Reduction in the American Express dividend was reflected in a drop of four points in the stock. United States Express also gave way 2 1/2.

The market closed steadily. European selling of Canadian Pacific continued until long after the usual time for the suspension of arbitrage business, and the stock lost three points. Fractional recoveries were general in the final dealing.

The more important stocks closed as follows:

- Amalgamated, 72 3/8.
- Sugar, 59 1/2.
- Atchison, 55 7/8.
- Renting, 39 2/4.
- Southern Pacific, 93 1/8.
- Union Pacific, 156 1/2.
- Steel, 62 1/2.
- Steel, preferred, 105 7/8.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISION MARKET

Chicago, March 12.—Wheat prices rallied today in consequence of Kansas reports that in some places late-sown fields were showing damage as great as 20 per cent. The market opened the same as last night to 1 1/4 lower, but then made an advance all around.

The close was steady at 1 1/4 to 1 3/8 net decline.

Confirmation of liberal sales to the east and a scarcity of rural offerings helped to develop strength in oral opening prices, which were shade to 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 lower, were followed by a general rise to above last night's level.

The close was weak, 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 lower.

Outs sagged owing to absence of demand.

Higher prices for hog steady provisions. After opening unchanged to a shade off, the market gradually hardened.

LITERACY TEST TO REMAIN IN BILL AS REPORTED

Washington, March 12.—The U. S. Senate has voted to retain the literacy test in the bill to regulate immigration.

Senate Committee Will Leave Retention of Clause up to Judgment of Whole Senate.

HEALTH INSPECTOR ON SHIPBOARD ELIMINATED

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Washington, March 12.—The much discussed literacy test will remain in the Senate immigration bill when it is presented to the Senate for action. This was decided today by the Senate immigration committee, which will report the bill favorably.

There was a suggestion that the literacy test be dropped because of the risk of President Wilson's veto, but the majority of the committee did not believe the president would carry his opposition to that feature so far as to veto the entire bill. Senators opposed to the test will fight it on the floor.

The provision for American health inspectors on immigrant vessels leaving foreign ports to which Italy and some other foreign governments objected, was changed to provide that immigrant vessels carrying persons suspected of being deportable on account of disease may be detained after reaching port and the suspected persons confined on board until their cases are determined.

The provision for a head tax of five dollars on each immigrant was changed to six dollars for each unmarried and four dollars for each married alien.

WORD FROM STEFANSON REACHES DAWSON

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Seattle, Wash., March 12.—A news dispatch from Dawson, Yukon Territory, says E. S. Irmades, collector of customs at Dawson, has received a letter written at McPherson by a friend who interviewed Vilhjalmur Stefansson, commander in chief of the Canadian Arctic exploration expedition, who was there last month. The letter says Stefansson has gone back to Herschel Island, off the mouth of Mackenzie river, and intends to start out immediately over the Arctic. Continuing the letter says:

"Stefansson thinks that the exploration ship Karluk, which was blown from the vicinity of Point Barrow, Alaska, into the Arctic ice field during a blizzard last September, having Stefansson and three other scientists aboard, may breakwell Captain Basil Amundson in his coming attempt to drift across the pole. The Karluk is provisioned for five years and Stefansson seems to be of the opinion that she will be carried across the pole by the ice and come out north of Greenland."
